RESOLUTION NO. 7736

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Constitution, the Omnibus Election Code and other election laws, the Commission on Elections may depute certain departments under the Executive Branch, Government-Owned-and-Controlled Corporations and Financial Institutions in connection with the May 14, 2007 National and Local Elections.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission on Elections, has RESOLVED to depute, as it hereby RESOLVES to depute, the following departments under the executive branch, government-owned and controlled corporations and financial institutions, to perform specific duties relative to the conduct of the elections, as follows:

1. THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The Department of Education (DepEd) and its Department Secretary, the Undersecretaries, Assistant Secretaries, Regional Directors, Assistant Regional Directors, the Provincial/City Superintendents of Schools or Officers-in-Charge thereof, are hereby designated Deputies of the Commission on Elections; and the District Supervisors, School Principals or Officers-in-Charge thereof, are hereby appointed Assistant Deputies.

The Department Secretary, the Undersecretaries, Regional Directors and Assistant Regional Directors shall comply with and enforce all orders and instructions of the Commission relative to the election duties and functions of public school teachers in connection with the May 14, 2007 national and local elections, and perform such other measures as are necessary including the use of all public school buildings designated as polling places/ centers.

The Provincial/ City Superintendents of Schools and Officers-in-Charge thereof shall:

- a. Submit to the Election Officers (EO) not later than February 13, 2007, the names of public school teachers recommended for appointment as chairmen and members of the Boards of Election Inspectors BEI);
- b. Submit to the EO the names of district supervisors and school principals recommended for appointment as assistants; and
- c. Comply strictly with the rules and regulations prescribed herein, and such other resolutions as may be promulgated by the Commission.

The District School Supervisors, School Principals or Officers-in-Charge shall:

- a. Ensure that the public school teachers recommended to serve as Chairman and members of the BEI are not related within the fourth civil degree of consanguinity or affinity to any member of the BEI, or to any of the candidate to be voted for in the polling place or his spouse;
- b. Receive all communications from the Commission or its deputies and transmit them to the BEI concerned.
- c. Supervise public school teachers appointed to positions of chairmen and members of the BEI in accordance with the instructions of the Commission.
- d. Receive complaints against any chairman or member of the BEI and to transmit the same to the Commission or its representatives; and
- e. Adopt, jointly with the EO and the BEI, adequate measures to safeguard election documents and paraphernalia.

The DepEd Regional Directors, Assistant Regional Directors, Provincial and City Superintendents of Schools, District Supervisors, School Principals or Officers-in-Charge thereof, and public school teachers, shall not be transferred or assigned to other positions during the election period, without prior written authority of the Commission.

The following guidelines shall be observed in the appointment of teachers to the BEI:

- a. All public school teachers who had served as chairman or members of the BEI in previous elections shall be given preference for appointment to the same precincts;
- b. Where it is necessary to constitute new or additional BEI, preference for appointment shall be given to public school teachers who efficiently served in the May 10, 2004 National and Local Elections, and who are registered voters of the municipality / city;
- c. The best qualified public school teachers on the basis of rank, position and salary shall be appointed chairmen; and

d. In case of shortage of public school teachers in the city or municipality for appointment as chairmen and members of the BEI, the city superintendent of schools and/ or district supervisors shall immediately notify the EO of such fact.

No conference, seminar, or any school activity, which might interfere, restrict, or prevent the performance of election duties of district school supervisors, school principals and public school teachers, shall be held during the election period except upon prior written authority of the Commission.

The superintendent of schools, district supervisor or school principal shall immediately report to the EO any chairman or member of the BEI who has committed or is committing any serious irregularity or misbehavior in the performance of duties, or who is disqualified to serve as such. The EO shall relieve said chairman or member and appoint the corresponding substitute who shall immediately be directed to take over.

Immediately after the elections, the Commission and/ or school officials concerned shall file against the erring chairman or member the appropriate criminal and/ or administrative charges in accordance with existing laws, rules and regulations of the Commission.

2. THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance and its Department Secretary are hereby designated deputies of the Commission to enforce and ensure that during the election period:

All Provincial, City and Municipal Treasurers shall:

a. Remain in their present assignments and not be transferred or detailed, whether temporarily or permanently, to another province, city or municipality, except upon prior written authority of the Commission;

b. Not be allowed to go on leave of absence from office during the period starting two weeks before and two weeks after election day except upon prior written approval of the Commission. They shall at all times assign responsible employees in their offices to receive telegrams and instructions from the Commission relative to election matters to insure immediate action thereon; and

All City/ Municipal Treasurers shall:

a. Under the direct orders and supervision of the EO, preserve, take custody and storage of election forms, ballot boxes, paraphernalia, supplies and materials entrusted to them and prevent any loss, destruction, impairment or damage thereto;

In the discharge of their duties as deputies of the Commission, the City/ Municipal Treasurers shall not be subject to the command, control or orders of the city/ municipal mayors or other local executive officials. In this respect, it shall be unlawful for the city/ municipal mayors or local executive officials to intervene or interfere in the discharge by these deputies of their duties in connection with the elections;

b. Keep a record of the quantity and serial numbers of official ballots, election returns and ballot boxes allocated for distribution to the various precincts in their respective jurisdiction, and furnish legible copies of such record to the candidates, the EO and the Election Records and Statistics Department (ERSD), Commission on Elections, Manila, immediately after distribution;

c. Distribute in the presence of watchers, if available, the official ballots, election returns and ballot boxes, to the BEI not earlier than the first hour on election day. However, the Commission, upon request by the EO, and upon the recommendation by the Deputy Executive Director for Operations, may authorize the City/ Municipal Treasurers, to distribute the election forms, materials, supplies and other paraphernalia, at an earlier time and with written notice to the candidates and political parties, for reasons such as, but not limited to, distance and weather condition in the locality and difficulty of transportation, number of precincts in a city or municipality, and prevailing peace and order;

The BEI shall issue the proper receipt stating clearly the date, the number of sets and the corresponding quantity and serial numbers of the official ballots and ballot boxes and other accountable forms and supplies.

d. Submit the accomplished Certificate of Receipt of Official Ballots and Other Forms and Supplies (CEF No. 14) to the EO within five days after election day; and

e. Submit to the EO an official report on ballot boxes which were not returned to him by the BEI immediately after its adjournment. The ERSD shall be furnished with a copy of said report.

The Provincial, City and Municipal Treasurers are hereby designated for the purpose herein provided as Deputies under the direct and immediate supervision of the Commission in their respective provinces, cities and municipalities.

3. THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND COMMUNICATIONS

The Department of Transportation and Communications, and its Department Secretary and all offices/ agencies under the department are hereby designated as deputies to perform the following duties and functions:
